Do you remember the first time you learned
 Monsters could be real?
 Behind the teacher's back or behind closed doors
 What their smiles could conceal

Sly little cruelties they denied
 Betrayals of trust that ached inside
 The ones that you turned to who replied
 "Oh just ignore"
 Did you find solace in stories
 On the screen or on the page
 Escape to another world, another age

Do you remember the first time you learned
 Monsters could be slain?
 The stories said the power could be yours
 And that you could ease the pain

And sometimes the monster could be tamed
 And sometimes you learned, when it was named
 That sometimes the monster was the same
 The same as you
 The heroes and monsters together said,
 "Come with us, you'll be safe and strong."
 You are welcome as you are, where you belong."

(We Are) We are the lovers and the dreamers
 And we will stand up, win or lose
 (We Are) We are the children of the future
 And we will make it what we choose
 (We Are) We are creators of our own worlds
 Every planet, every star
 (We are) We don't need anyone to tell us
 Who we are (we are who we are)

Did you imagine you'd ever find
 A place where you could share
 The stories and the songs and the many worlds
 Before someone joined you there

Remember that all your loves are true
 If anyone says it's not for you
 Well just look around, you know what to do
 You have a voice
 We've all got a chair at the gaming table
 And it's time for them to learn
 We're here where we belong, and it's our turn
